Do you bill 7 days a week?

Yes. All equipment is chargeable on a daily rate, 7 days per week. (unless negotiated)

Useful information

Why does my quotation have a day rate and a week rate?

For some equipment we offer a day rate and a week rate. The week rate is based on a 4 day working week. This is to ensure our rates are competitive for customers and also supports minimum hire periods.

What does "Anticipated Total" mean on my quotation?

The anticipated total is the estimated invoice total based on the hire dates (daily or weekly) provided. If the duration or quantity of equipment changes this figure would also change.

What is a minimum hire period?

Minimum hire periods are applied to selected products. The minimum hire period would refer the minimum length of time the unit has to be on hire.
